

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The newspaper/broadcast

cross-ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

Especially in this time, we need to take extra care to preserve our rights. Not only our freedom, but also our integrity is at stake here. If we lose these, then what are we fighting for anyways?
